

ZOILA F. PERRY

Studio Address: 1808 Bustleton Pike
Churchville, Bucks County, PA 18966
Telephone: (215) 357 0272

Education: Bucks County Community College. Studied sculpture under Charlotte Schatz.
Cheltenham Art Center. Specialized in welded metal sculpture with Leon Sitarchuck.
Sculpture Associates, NYC. Studied casting techniques.
Ascanio De Gattis, Rome, Italy. Studied ceramic sculpture techniques

Juried Exhibitions:

Rittenhouse Fine Arts Annual, Philadelphia, PA
Woodmere Gallery, Chestnut Hill, PA
Mercer Museum, Doylestown, PA
Phillips Mill Art Center, New Hope, PA
Pearl Buck Foundation, Perkasie, PA
National Academy of Sciences, Washington, DC
Bucks County Art Alliance, Buckingham, PA
Pine Run Gallery, Perkasie, PA
Abington Art Center, Abington, PA
Rodman House Art Center, Doylestown, PA
Yardley Art Center, Yardley, PA
Cheltenham Art Center, Cheltenham, PA
Bucks County Chamber of Commerce, Doylestown

Awards:

Prize for Professional Sculpture, Cheltenham Art Center, 1983;
H. Kenneth Kochey Award in Sculpture, Cheltenham Art Center, 1995.

Description:

Zoila Perry creates abstract and figurative sculpture in a wide variety of media. Her works display a remarkable diversity of form, texture and thematic content. From 1980 to 2005, Zoila has created 163 pieces of metal sculpture, which are displayed both indoors and outdoors in various private, corporate and institutional collections, both in the USA and abroad. A complete catalog of her works is available.